

DDoS attack figures from the third quarter of 2020

The Dutch National Scrubbing Center against DDoS attacks (NaWas) protects participants against DDoS. Beyond protection, the NaWas also offers valuable insights into the changing landscape of DDoS. To better combat these malicious attacks, we share our up-to-date knowledge with interested parties. Together we stand strong against DDoS. Below you'll find some of the most important figures from the third quarter of 2020.

Number of attacks:

307

Average number of attacks per day:

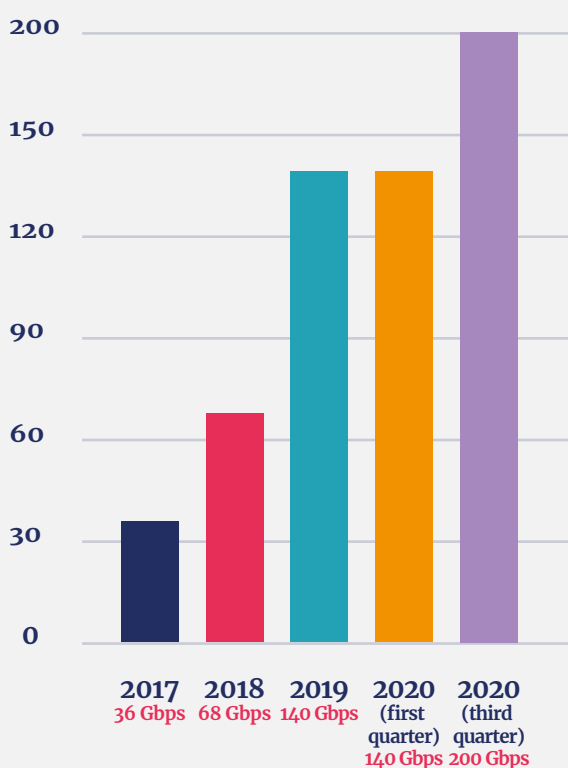

4

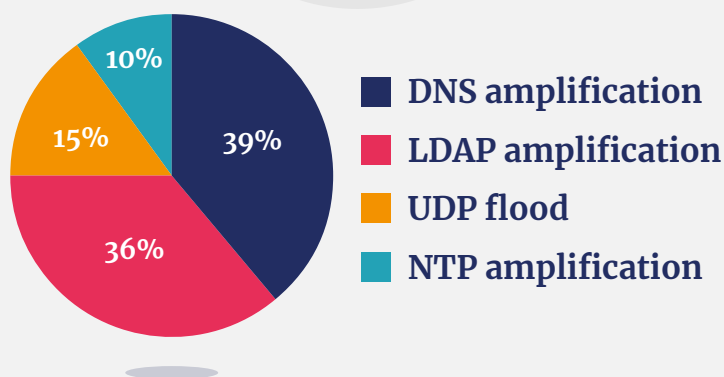

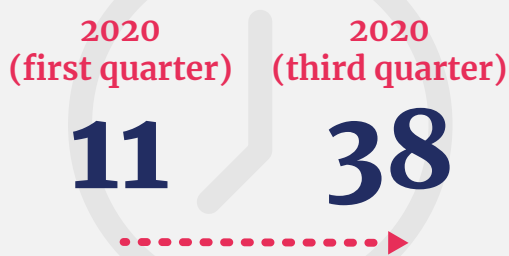

Largest recorded attack:

200 Gbps

Maximum size of attacks

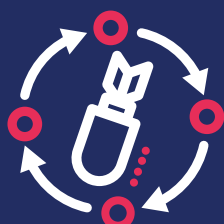

Prolonged attacks >4 hours

Trends

Attacks were extremely powerful

More attacks were registered in Q3 2020 compared to Q1 2020

attacks were aimed at ISP's and Enterprises in Europe

Most common type of attacks: DNS Amplification & LDAP amplification
Criminals respond faster and faster to changes in digital security

Want to learn more about NaWas DDoS protection?
Visit our website at nbip.nl/en/nawas